Thurs 10/29 Monthly Jazz Improv Class At The Carriage House 7:00 pm $10

A new jazz improv program will soon take place monthly at the East End Arts Council, with support from the Jazz Foundation of America. Jazz in the Carriage House will consist of small performances, talks, improv sessions and interactive demonstrations, all focusing on the only form of music truly rooted in American history. The program kicks off on Thursday, October 29 from 7-8:30 PM when premier jazz musicians Billy Johnson and Teddy Charles, armed with upright bass and vibes respectively, will play their uniquely beautiful music, discuss the history of jazz in America and share their experiences of becoming performing jazz artists, followed by a Q & A session. To close out the evening, attendees will be encouraged to join the musicians for a session of jazz improvisation. Subsequent sessions, will be held the 3rd Thursday of each month on an ongoing basis, and will include both demonstration and instruction in jazz techniques and improvisation. All attendees are strongly encouraged to bring their instruments. Current music students of the School of the Arts and EEAC members may attend this program at no charge. There is a nominal fee of $10 for nonmembers/students. Space is limited. Please be sure to reserve your space by contacting the School of the Arts at (631) 369- 2171 or education@eastendarts.org.

Sat 10/24 – Sun 1/10 Sean Landers: Art, Life and God

Since the early 90s, Sean Landers has built up a puzzling and elusive body of work, one that is at once visual and writerly, expressive and performative, one in which he has consistently defied prevailing art world trends and confounded critical exegesis. Art, Life and God, made in 1990-91, was his first body of work to draw serious critical attention and it both set the tone and laid the conceptual framework for much of what has followed. Glenn Horowitz Bookseller is pleased to present the first full exhibition of Art, Life and God since 1991 and to announce a new publication that will make this body of work available as a book for the first time.

Sat 10/24 – Sun 11/29 Ackrill and Bauman “Latest Works”

Anthony Ackrill's originality and high level of craft forge the wide chasm between his main influences, which are pop culture on one hand and classical training on the other. One of our most respected original Grenning Gallery artist returns this year with a very rich portfolio of paintings. Bauman's restrained palette yet painterly technique is well represented in this show. His mystical landscape "Long Road" is a delightful tonalist painting. This is the natural progression from his smaller yet intriguing earlier works "New Bridge in Florence" and "Red Light" .

MOSQUITO HAWK GALLERY 24 North Ferry Road, Shelter Island, NY 11964 631.905.4998

Sat 10/24 – Mon 11/23 Bastienne Schmidt “Vivir La Muerte” Photographic Exhibit

The images, taken in Latin America, explore the ways in which people deal with death, and in them, Ms. Schmidt has focused on mourning rituals that take place in Latin American countries that allow for a fuller integration of death into life.

SOLAR GALLERY 44 Davids Lane, East Hampton, NY 11937 631.907.8422

Fri 10/23 – Mon 11/23 Dalton Portella: Path – Photography Exhibit 12:00 pm and by appointment

Dalton Portella creates haunting, unsettling images that combine natural landscape and surroundings, in particular of the East End of Long Island, with industrial, mechanical, and military elements as well as figures, often of children, in particular the artist's own daughter. These compositions draw the viewer in for their sheer beauty, then hold one beyond that first aesthetic gaze because of the unexpected - surreal even - juxtapositions that are represented. Viewing hours by appointment. A Cocktail Reception will be held on Saturday, November 7, from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m.

SPANIERMAN GALLERY 68 Newtown Lane, East Hampton, NY 11937 631.329.9530

Open Thurs – Mon 10:00 am – 6:00 pm

Thurs 10/8 – Mon 11/23 Danny Simmons: From There to Here

Spanierman Gallery, LLC at East Hampton is pleased to announce the opening on October 8, 2009 of the exhibition, Danny Simmons: From There to Here, featuring abstract, radiantly gestural paintings created by the artist over the course of fifteen years, in which he has sought to reveal a spiritual presence beyond that of the art object's physical properties. Drawing inspiration and motivation from the African contemporary and indigenous art and other tribal examples that he has collected over the course of many years (his collection numbers close to 2,000 items), he is motivated by a desire to think about spirituality and to seek a way to access, channel, and touch it through the creative process. Simmons views a painting as similar to a message in a bottle or a spiritual emanation that when sent out into the world encompasses a realm of experience and a life of its own beyond that of its creator.

THE WATERMILL CENTER 39 Watermill Town Road, Water Mill, NY 11976 631.726.4628

Fri 10/2 Katharina D. Martin's Forest Time 7:00 pm Free

In a residency taking place September 22–October 4, the German-born, Rotterdam-based performance and video artist Katharina D. Martin takes advantage of the Watermill Center's unique locale, in addition to its resources for interdisciplinary work. Entitled Forest Time, her project will entail her living, glamorously dressed throughout, in the woods surrounding the facility—and filming herself over the course of several days. She will be fully attired like a Marilyn Monroe-esque female icon, with a fresh manicure, makeup, evening wear, and high heels. She will carry out traditionally feminine activities, in addition to acts of survival and play, while living outdoors at Watermill. As she inhabits this striking incongruity—dressed up in artifice in a natural environment—Martin will reveal the absurdity of classic signifiers of glamorous femininity. This event is an opportunity to see Martin's work-in-progress, captured via video, to the general public.

Sat 10/3 Salamander Log Rolling 10:30 am Montauk

Walk Leader: Andy Sabin, SoFo Board President. "Mr. Salamander," Andy Sabin, will introduce you to two of our unusual native salamanders: the Blue-spotted Salamander, which can be found in its purebred form on Long Island, in Montauk, and the other, the Four-toed Salamander, whose tail drops off when it is grasped at the tail by a predator. Children love this walk.

Sat 10/10 Peak Fall Migration 7:45 am Montauk

Walk Leader: Hugh McGuinness. The first cold weather Canadian fronts come through our area at this time of year bringing with them waves of migrating passerines (perching birds). Most of these birds migrate at night but during the day they alight to feed and rest. Join Hugh, the former compiler of East End Birds, an Internet bird-alert report for eastern Long Island, on this early morning visit to Montauk Point, long recognized as one of the East Coast's most important migration traps.

Sat 10/17 Seaweeds of the Drift Line and Tide Pool 12:30 pm Montauk

Walk Leader: Larry Liddle. Larry Liddle, Professor Emeritus at Southampton College LIU, and visiting professor in marine science at Prince of Songkla University in Hat Yai, Thailand, has been engaged in the scientific study of seaweeds throughout his career. On this walk with Larry you'll have an opportunity to visit and study a drift site where subtidal seaweeds pile up after a storm and then investigate an intertidal spot to see and identify the most characteristic genera found there. Don't forget to ask Larry about his seaweed herbarium.

Sat 10/24 Gone Batty: Story and Craft Time for Younger Children (5 and under) 10:00 am Bridgehampton
Registration is essential and is limited for this program; please reserve immediately! Workshop Leader: Crystal Possehl, SoFo Nature Educator. Just in time for Halloween join Crystal and her story-time puppet Timmy Wolf as they read some stories for children about bats and explore some interesting facts about these fascinating and not really scary flying mammals. After the story children will make their own handprint bat. There is a $2 materials fee for this program.

Sat 10/24 Gone Batty: Story and Game Time for Older Children (6 and older) 1:00 pm Bridgehampton
Registration is essential and is limited for this program; please reserve immediately! Workshop Leader: Crystal Possehl, SoFo Nature Educator. Though bats aren't scary when you get to know them, they are always associated with Halloween. Join Crystal as she reads Shadows of the Night, a Sierra Club book which is an informative story about one year in the life of our native Little Brown Bat. Afterward, children will go out into the field with Crystal to play "Bat & Moth," a game about echolocation.

Sat 10/31 Wildlife Live! From Our Own Backyard 10:00 am Bridgehampton

Program Leader: Dennis Fleury, Wildlife Rescue Center of the Hamptons. Meet a six-month old opossum and a menagerie of birds, from a Red-tailed Hawk to a couple of owls, and some special songbirds in this program of "Wildlife Live." Learn some cool facts about opossums; how at birth, newborn opossums are so tiny that an entire litter, consisting of up to 13 babies, can fit into a single teaspoon — about raptors; which ones fly at night and how they see in the dark — and about songbirds; who sings more, a male or female. Here's an opportunity to see some of our native wildlife up close and personal.

Sun 10/11 Bay to Sound Trails: Big Clean-up #2 (Greenport) 10:00 am – 3:00 pm

Hot on the heels of this summer's hugely successful "Big Clean Up" hosted by our partners at North Fork Audubon Society (NFAS), Group for the East End and NFAS are back at it and need your help with "Big Clean Up # 2." This time we are hoping to beat our record of 18 volunteers as we fill a 10-yard dumpster generously donated by our friends at Mattituck Sanitation. The Bay to Sounds Trails project will provide nature trails and bike paths linking Greenport's waterfront to the shore of Long Island Sound. So stop by for an hour or stay all day. We hope to make this a true community event with families, Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts, Village and Town Board members, everyone. Please bring your own gloves. For more information and to let us know you are coming (so we can have enough bags, drinks, etc.), please contact Jeremy Samuelson at 631-765-6450 ext. 209 or jsamuelson@eastendenvironment.org.

Wed 10/14 Cold-Stunned Sea Turtle Talk (Southold) 6:00 pm – 7:30 pm

Many times sea turtles don't head south quite soon enough and can become "cold-stunned" (a condition similar to hypothermia), and can wash up on our shores. When discovered soon enough, these injured sea turtles can be nursed back to health by the Riverhead Foundation for Marine Research and Preservation. Join us along with a representative of the Riverhead Foundation and learn about the sea turtles in our local waters, and what to look for when walking our local beaches to help protect these unique animals. Reservations are required. For reservations or more information, please contact Jennifer Skilbred at 631-765-6450 ext. 212 or jskilbred@eastendenvironment.org.

Wed 10/21 Beach Walk and Sea Turtle Search (Southold) 3:00 pm – 4:30 pm

Join us for a fall walk on a local Southold beach. We will bring bags, etc. for a cleanup, as well as search for any "cold-stunned" sea turtles that may have washed up on shore. Whether you attended the October 14th lecture or couldn't make it and want to learn more about local sea turtles, this is a great exploration for you! For reservations or more information, please contact Jennifer Skilbred at 631-765-6450 ext. 212 or jskilbred@eastendenvironment.org.

Thurs 10/29 Fifth Annual Quiz Night Fundraiser (Hampton Bays) 6:00 pm – 9:00 pm

Attention trivia enthusiasts! Join us for a fun night of quizzing topped off with CASH PRIZES. Teams will compete for a first place cash prize by answering quiz questions about the local environment and other interesting topics. We'll also include a few games of BINGO between rounds! Get your friends together to share some laughs while raising money to protect and restore eastern Long Island's environment. Team registration: $20 EARLY; $30 AT THE DOOR. For more information, or to register a team, please contact Jodi Grindrod at 631-765-6450 ext. 216 or jgrindrod@eastendenvironment.org.

THE NATURE CONSERVANCY Mashomack Preserve, Shelter Island 749-1001

Edged in white by 10 miles of coastline, Mashomack Preserve on Shelter Island is considered one of the richest habitats in the Northeast. Just 90 miles from New York City, the preserve covers a third of the island with 2,039 acres of interlacing tidal creeks, mature oak woodlands, fields, and freshwater marshes and is often referred to as the "Jewel of the Peconic." All programs require pre-registration. Call the Mashomack Preserve office at (631) 749-1001 for reservations, meeting place, and further information. Events are free to members of The Nature Conservancy, $4 for non-members, unless otherwise noted.

Sat 10/3 Classical Music: Allegri String Trio with Wendy Fogel 8:00 pm Free

Sat 10/10 Listening to Jupiter: A Lecture and Live Demo 8:00 pm Free

Presenter: Ron Milione, Ph.D. After the accidental discovery of radio bursts from Jupiter, scientists sought to understand the radio emissions. They collected radio data, compared it with other information about the planet, and began to match Jupiter's radio bursts with the planet's rotation. The observers realized that whether we hear Jupiter or not depends a lot on what part of the planet is facing us at the time. It seems there are special longitudes where Jupiter is much more likely to be heard than others; the longitudes are like "landmarks" on a planet with no observable surface. In addition to the lecture on how the giant planet Jupiter is beaming mysterious signals from a distance of 365 million miles, there will be a "live" demonstration so those present can hear Jupiter themselves!

Sat 10/24 Orionid Meteor Shower Party (weather permitting) 8:00 pm $5 nonmembers/$3 children

The meteors from this shower originate from Halley's Comet and seem to radiate from the constellation Orion. The shower extends from October 2 - November 7 and peaks on Oct. 21-22. It averages about 30 meteors per hour. Although tonight is not the peak, the moon is only 1/3 full so we should still be able to see some Orionids streaking across the night sky. Bring a blanket or a lawn chair and join us as we watch nature's wonderful sky show. Suggested Donation: $5 Non-Members, $3 Children, free for Members.

THE CHILDREN'S MUSEUM OF THE EAST END (CMEE) 376 Bridgehampton/Sag Harbor Turnpike, Bridgehampton 537-8250

It started with a dream: To create a magical and inviting place for young people that would stir their curiosity and imagination. In this quickly moving world of technology, children's museums give families an opportunity to slow down and actively share in their children's growth. These wonderful places of discovery are designed to provide interactive experiences that foster curiosity in children and create a lifelong love of self-directed learning. Interactive exhibits will be both permanent and rotating. The permanent exhibit will focus on what makes the East End a special place, with an emphasis on the people and living creatures that inhabit it. Themes include agriculture, fishing, world celebrations, and community. In addition to the indoor activities, visitors will be encouraged to explore outdoor exhibits, mazes and gardens. Plans include space for year-round workshops, performances, and special events, as well as a permanent art workshop for children to explore their own creativity. Reservations required unless otherwise specified. CMEE Museum Hours: Mon, Wed, Thurs & Sat: 9 am-6 pm; Friday is late night at CMEE: 9 am-7:30 pm; Sun: 10 am-6 pm; Closed on Tuesdays Admission: Under 1 year old: FREE; 12 and under: $5.00; Teens and Grownups: $7.00; Senior Grownups: $5.00 YOU MUST REGISTER FOR ALL CLASSES IN ADVANCE.

Sign up NOW for a brand new season of stimulating, Educational Classes this Fall geared for babies through 4 years old beginning on October 3. LONG ISLAND MEADERY 1347 Lincoln Avenue Suite 11 Holbrook NY 11741 285-7469

Have you ever heard of mead? Have you ever tried mead? Maybe you tried mead while visiting Europe or at a medieval festival? Have you been told that mead was like beer, a beer with honey or even a wine with honey? Mead has some similarities to these beverages, but it is so much more it deserves its own category. Mead is an alcoholic beverage made from the fermentation of honey as its primary sugar source and is often referred to as honey wine. Being made from honey, one would naturally expect it to be very sweet and although it usually is, it can actually range from dry to very sweet. Mead is usually still, though it can be made sparkling and can range from a mild low alcoholic content up to very high. Mead is arguably the oldest alcoholic beverage on the planet with some evidence dating it back approximately 10,000 years. Due to many different cultural and financial reasons, mead has fallen out of favor over the many years and now we call it the 'oldest alcoholic beverage no one has ever heard of.' A far cry from its hey day when it was referred to as the 'Nectar of the Gods.' Mead can be produced in many variations including a plain honey wine (traditional - honey only), flavored with fruit (melomel), spices (metheglin), vegetables, or any combination of ingredients limited only by the imagination of the wine maker and the resources he has at hand.

THE BAY STREET THEATRE Bay Street at Long Wharf, Sag Harbor, NY 631.725.9500

Mon 11/9 – Sat 11/14 and Mon 11/16 – Sat 11/21 Literature Live! presents “The Diary of Anne Frank” $10 weekdays/$15 Sat evenings Performance Times below

Based on the book Anne Frank: Diary of a Young Girl. The play by Frances Goodrich and Albert Hackett is a stage adaptation of the book. The story, which made its debut in 1956, won both a Tony award for Best Play and the Pulitzer Prize for drama. This riveting play about the lives of eight people hiding from the Nazis in a concealed space above a warehouse allows audiences to feel their claustrophobic existence, their hopes, their fears and their indomitable will to survive. LITERATURE LIVE! brings the power of the word from the page to the stage. Using curriculum-based literature, Bay Street Theatre creates a unique learning experience by bringing professional theatre artists together to present first class productions. The possibilities for insight and understanding of the subject matter are only increased when students can witness the characters from a great play or novel living and breathing and telling their stories right before their eyes. LITERATURE LIVE! is designed specifically with middle and high school age students, their teachers and administrators in mind. In addition, Bay Street Theatre will present the play on weekends for family audiences, and other types of groups (such as seniors, churches, and temples) who may wish to attend. The below Performance Times have already be set. Schedule your visit for one of these performances or choose your own!! Monday, 11/9: 11am | Tuesday, 11/10: 11am | Monday, 11/16: 10am | Tuesday, 11/17: 9:30am | Wednesday, 11/18: Noon | Thursday, 11/19: 10am | Friday, 11/20: 11am | Saturday, 11/14 and 11/21: 7:00 pm.

Sat 11/28 Spalding Gray: Stories Left to Tell 8:00 pm $65/$50/$35

Words by Spalding Gray. Concept by Kathleen Russo. Directed by Lucy Sexton. Featuring Kathleen Chalfant, Hazelle Goodman, Ain Gordon and more! Spalding Gray, one of the most revered and irreverent storytellers of our time, became an indelible image: sitting alone at a desk on a bare stage, delivering hilarious and moving monologues. But what made Gray's performances so memorable and timeless was the universal way his words-the observations, neuroses, fears and joys they expressed-resonate so deeply with audiences. His work lives on in the funny, poignant, and ultimately life-affirming Spalding Gray: Stories Left to Tell.

Sun 11/29 Film Screening: "The Kings of Appletown" 2:30 pm $10 adults/$8 children

Featuring Disney's Zac and Cody. Will and Clayton witness a murder, but out of fear decide not to tell anyone. They and their friend Betsy, whose father has been wrongfully accused of the crime, go on a journey to find the real killer, and at the same time redeem themselves.

KIDSTREET @ BAY STREET THEATRE Bay Street at Long Wharf, Sag Harbor, NY 631.725.9500

Sun 11/1 Brady Rymer 3:00 pm $15 adults/$12 children

Brady Rymer's rollicking, roots-y tunes resonate through American culture, bringing an honest, joyful spirit to music for all generations; "his music has a rock 'n' roll heart," wrote The New York Times. Brady's newest CD, "Here Comes Brady Rymer and the Little Band That Could," marks his debut recording with the band he's brought on the road since 2005. Combining a feel-good R&B foundation with traditional acoustic arrangements and a scoop of sunny 70's optimism, they've created a modern American roots sound for families everywhere; the Little Band That Could "might just be the best-sounding band in children's music," according to Stefan Shepherd on NPR's All Things Considered.

Sat 11/28 Hot Peas 'N Butter 11:00 am & 1:00 pm $15 adults/$12 children

Winners of the 2006 AND the 2008, "Parent's Choice Awards", Hot Peas 'N Butter is a unique children's musical group that incorporates elements of traditional Latin music, Afro-Caribbean rhythms, jazz, folk, and rock. By combining an interactive, invigorating approach to performance with mature, multicultural music, Hot Peas 'N Butter has developed a distinct way of inspiring care and creativity in kids and adults alike.

Sat 11/7 4th Annual East End Black Film Festival 1:00 pm – 10:00 pm $5 day pass/Parrish members Free

The Fourth Annual East End Black Film Festival will be take place Saturday, November 7, from 1 to 10 pm, at the Parrish Art Museum. Organized by the African-American Museum of the East End, the program, selected by Bonnie Cannon, Brenda Simmons, and Cheryl Buck, will include films for children, families, and adults, as well as two shorts and the 1954 classic Carmen Jones. Gloria's of the Hamptons will provide ethnic food between films. A day pass is $5; admission is free for Parrish members. In addition to Saturday's day-long screening schedule, a special showing of the short documentary Beyond the Bricks will take place Thursday, November 5, at 7 pm, at the Parrish and will be followed by a panel discussion including director Derek Koen, producer Ouida Washington, and local educators, teachers, and parent advocates. Beyond the Bricks explores the issues that produce consistently low performance of African-American boys in the public school system and focuses on solutions to this critical problem. Admission to the film and panel is free. In connection with the Festival, an evening of spoken word and live jazz, featuring Touché and special guest jazz violinist Krystle Ford, will take place Friday, November 6, at 7:15 pm, at the Southampton Cultural Center on Pond Lane. Admission to Spoken Word & Live Jazz is $10. More information about all the programs is available from Bonnie Cannon (631-766-8642) or Brenda Simmons (631-283-5072).

Sat 11/21 Kant Elegant 4:00 pm Free

The installation KANT ELEGANT derives its inspiration from Immanuel Kant. Kant was not only well-known in his time in Königsberg as a teacher, writer, and thinker, but also as an inherently elegant man. In clothing and dress he matched colors based on flowers because, as he said, "Nature doesn't produce what doesn't cater to the eyes." With this in mind, KANT ELEGANT aims to connect with and bring out the natural scenery of Watermill, presenting one outfit each from Coco Chanel (France), Yohji Yamamoto (Japan), Karl Lagerfeld (Germany), Calvin Klein (USA), and Giorgio Armani (Italy). The exhibitions will set match the clothing from these designers to fitting counterparts in color from the surrounding area. Sarah Ortmeier, in collaboration with Alexis Kunsak, creates visual presentations based on her research and interest in the history of style, often building on overlooked connections between cultural and historical icons. Ortmeier studies with Wolfgang Tillmans at the prestigious visual arts school Staatliche Hochschule für Bildende Künste—Städelschule in Frankfurt, Germany. Please RSVP to this event.

Sat 11/21 Harbor, a film by Steven Vega 6:30 pm Free

Steven Vega's film Harbor combines costume design, dance, video, and music to create echoes of a surreal world. Set within a seamless black space, Harbor focuses on various combinations of light and texture. It presents a dialogue between characters through dance. It highlights the subtle fluctuations of a conductor along with a musical score. Sheep's wool is used to cover the body, face, and hands of the players, and braids link bodies to each other. Ultimately, Harbor explores Vega's underlying belief that film allows a moment of extreme intimacy for the viewer. This screening will be accompanied by a live musical performance. Please RSVP to this event.

WATERMILL COMMUNITY HOUSE 734 Montauk Highway, Water Mill, NY 11976 631.379.2200

Sat 11/28 Artisans Holiday Show 10:00 am – 5:00 pm Free

A group of local artisans are exhibiting at The Watermill Community House on the weekend of Thanksgiving, November 28 and November 29 on Route 27 in Water Mill. The group will be offering a variety of artwork. Entrance is free and refreshments will be served. Annie Sessler from Montauk, with her original one of a kind handmade fish rubbings. The prints are created by hand rubbing inked fish caught by her fisherman husband onto a variety of textiles. Annie's prints are available in either framed or unframed formats. David Posnett from East Hampton is an unconventional jeweler who incorporates beachstones and other finds from our local beaches in his designs. His highly original jewelry has been featured in juried exhibits and is currently on display at the Guild Hall gift shop in East Hampton. Marcie Honerkamp from East Hampton is a successful mosaic artist. She has been featured in various galleries on Long Island and the NY metropolitan area. She sells custom made pieces internationally. Locally, she is known for her mosaic surfboards, mosaic guitars and a giant mural in the Springs School library. Barbara Ringwald from Cutchogue is a well known weaver with a large following. She is an award-winning "fiber artist " who designs and weaves clothing that reflects the time-consuming care and love that went into apparel in the past but is sophisticated and user-friendly for our present day busy lifestyles. She believes that clothing should be beautiful, comfortable, practical, and above all- fun to wear! Josephine Glazebrook is the owner of Odyssey Stoneware in Port Jefferson. For 30 years she has been striving to fulfill her customers' desire for fine and functional stoneware and porcelain pottery. She finds the balance between function and beauty and learns through experimentation and serendipity. Jim Levison from Sag Harbor is a photographer. His work features both saltwater and freshwater fly fishing, hunting dogs and bird hunting, as well as a fine selection of general outdoor photography. Jim also guides saltwater anglers at Montauk Point from May through October.

Sun 11/22 Sphere Music: Part 2 – Poetry of the Seasons 3:00 pm Free

As the world turns, the seasons in all their beauty and mutability turn as well. Something is always arriving, something is always ending, a fact that is not lost on poets. Seasons, the other strand of the existential river of time and place, are colorful, relentless markers of our temporal existence, and one of the most visible, varied and vigorously evergreen subjects in all of poetry. As poets attempt to make art from the phenomenon of passing time, they use the vehicle of the seasons to engage our interest and sympathy via a breathtaking array of poetic techniques, such as elegy, humor, rhapsody, satire, irony and just plain orneriness to name but a few. From blooming cherries to nihilistic snowmen, it's always great weather for poetry. Presented by the Shelter Island Poetry Project @ the Library. Curated by Bliss Morehead.

Wed 11/4 – Sat 12/5 "Bad Barbie": Photographs by David Leventhal

The series of photographs, all in black and white, date from 1972 and represent Mr. Leventhal's first explorations in the artistic use of toys. He deploys the commercially ubiquitous dolls, Barbie, her boyfriend Ken, and G.I. Joe in a series of poses and tableaux of sexual liaison and activity. In conjunction with the show, the booksellers are publishing a new book featuring Mr. Leventhal's "Bad "Barbie" series.

Sun 11/8 Late Fall Bird Migration at Hither Hills 9:00 am Montauk

Walk Leader: Joe Giunta. Joe Giunta, expert birder and delightful walk leader, will take you on this excursion to Hither Hills State Park in Montauk, the perfect location to observe our songbirds during their late fall migration. The combination of ocean beach and field edges increases your opportunity to see late warblers and especially fall sparrows as they journey south. On previous walks at Hither Hills eight species of sparrows have been seen as well as a Dickcissel and Snow Bunting. The location also provides an opportunity to see Gannets and Ocean Ducks.

Sat 11/14 Beginning Papermaking 10:00 am Bridgehampton

Registration is essential and is limited for this program; please reserve immediately! Workshop Leader: Carol Crasson, SoFo Education and Program Director. In this beginning papermaking workshop you'll learn to make paper from recycled post-consumer materials as well as natural materials that you might find in your own backyard. We'll experiment with recycled paper, dryer lint, and beaten local grass pulp. You're encouraged to bring things for inclusion such as glitter, thread, and dried plant material. Prior to the workshop you will be instructed on how to make your own mould and deckle, the framework for making your paper. There will be a $7 materials charge for this workshop.

Sat 11/21 Scuba: An Underwater View of South Fork Diving with PADI Master Diver Tony Pasquale 10:00 am Bridgehampton

Scuba diving and tropical fish go hand in hand. Join us for this exceptional opportunity to learn about the tropical marine life brought to our waters in the fall by the Gulf Stream, in this program with PADI Master Diver Tony Pasquale. Tony, using an underwater camera, will show us fascinating footage of these tropical fish taken during his dives in the waters surrounding the Ponquoque Bridge in Hampton Bays, one of Long Island's premier dive sites. In addition you will learn about scuba gear, how to choose the right underwater camera system, and the principles of good underwater photography. Tony, who holds a Master's rating, the highest nonprofessional level in the Professional Association of Diving Instructors, has led numerous open water and wreck diving tours in our area and in the Caribbean.

THE CHILDREN'S MUSEUM OF THE EAST END (CMEE) 376 Bridgehampton/Sag Harbor Turnpike, Bridgehampton 537-8250

It started with a dream: To create a magical and inviting place for young people that would stir their curiosity and imagination. In this quickly moving world of technology, children's museums give families an opportunity to slow down and actively share in their children's growth. These wonderful places of discovery are designed to provide interactive experiences that foster curiosity in children and create a lifelong love of self-directed learning. Interactive exhibits will be both permanent and rotating. The permanent exhibit will focus on what makes the East End a special place, with an emphasis on the people and living creatures that inhabit it. Themes include agriculture, fishing, world celebrations, and community. In addition to the indoor activities, visitors will be encouraged to explore outdoor exhibits, mazes and gardens. Plans include space for year-round workshops, performances, and special events, as well as a permanent art workshop for children to explore their own creativity. Reservations required unless otherwise specified. CMEE Museum Hours: Mon, Wed, Thurs & Sat: 9 am-6 pm; Friday is late night at CMEE: 9 am-7:30 pm; Sun: 10 am-6 pm; Closed on Tuesdays Admission: Under 1 year old: FREE; 12 and under: $5.00; Teens and Grownups: $7.00; Senior Grownups: $5.0

Permanent Exhibit:

Explore along a raised wooden boardwalk and crawl through a hollow log, out of a mouse hole and into our fantasy tree house bedroom. Visit our Crawler Garden with its cuddly bugs and select fruits and vegetables at the East End Farm Stand. Walk down CMEE's Main Street, sail the seas on our seafaring ship, meet up with some sand puppets, make noise in the Musical Forest, create a masterpiece in our free Drop-In Art Studio, and interact with the traveling exhibits in the Legacy Family Tree Gallery. Connect the past to present to future, from local community to global society. There's a turn-of-the-century General Store with a replica soda fountain and costumes to try on. Sit down for a read along under an upside-down library book. Watch us transform potatoes into potato chips, and discover how a windmill works.

LONG ISLAND MEADERY 1347 Lincoln Avenue Suite 11 Holbrook NY 11741 285-7469

Have you ever heard of mead? Have you ever tried mead? Maybe you tried mead while visiting Europe or at a medieval festival? Have you been told that mead was like beer, a beer with honey or even a wine with honey? Mead has some similarities to these beverages, but it is so much more it deserves its own category. Mead is an alcoholic beverage made from the fermentation of honey as its primary sugar source and is often referred to as honey wine. Being made from honey, one would naturally expect it to be very sweet and although it usually is, it can actually range from dry to very sweet. Mead is usually still, though it can be made sparkling and can range from a mild low alcoholic content up to very high. Mead is arguably the oldest alcoholic beverage on the planet with some evidence dating it back approximately 10,000 years. Due to many different cultural and financial reasons, mead has fallen out of favor over the many years and now we call it the 'oldest alcoholic beverage no one has ever heard of.' A far cry from its hey day when it was referred to as the 'Nectar of the Gods.' Mead can be produced in many variations including a plain honey wine (traditional - honey only), flavored with fruit (melomel), spices (metheglin), vegetables, or any combination of ingredients limited only by the imagination of the wine maker and the resources he has at hand.

Chamber Series

The Southampton Cultural Center announces the Southampton Cultural Center Chamber Music Series. Held between December 13, 2009 and May 2, 2010 the series will present a variety of groups performing works from the standard chamber music repertoire of the 19th and 20th centuries as well as baroque and modern classics. Concerts will fit into one of three categories: the Southampton Cultural Center Chamber Players, established ensembles including the Escher String Quartet and Yarn/Wire and Stony Brook University ensembles. All performances will be held at Southampton Cultural Center's Levitas Center for the Arts, 25 Pond Lane, Southampton. Tickets will be sold at the door: $20/$10 students and seniors. Cash and checks will be accepted. Credit Cards will NOT be accepted. Contact: Southampton Cultural Center at 631 287-4377 or reservations@southamptonculturalcenter.org. www.southamptonculturalcenter.org.

Sun 12/13 Southampton Cultural Center Chamber Players 3:00 pm $20/$10 students and seniors

The Southampton Cultural Center Chamber Players is a group of extraordinary musicians formed specifically for the Southampton Cultural Center Chamber Series. The group's members hail largely from the New York area and are members of or have performed with such prestigious ensembles as the New York Philharmonic, Metropolitan Opera, Montreal Symphony and the Colorado Quartet and, between then, have been seen in virtually every major venue on the east coast. The SCCCCP is excited, this season, to welcome Philip Setzer, violinist with the Emerson String Quartet as a guest performer on May 2, 2010.

Sat 12/19 Yarn/Wire 8:00 pm $20/$10 students and seniors

Yarn/Wire is the only active new music ensemble in the United States dedicated to expanding the body of works written for two pianists and two percussionists. Influenced by its members' diverse experiences in classical music, avant-garde theatre, and experimental popular music, the quartet champions both acoustic and electro-acoustic works that often challenge existing trends in musical aesthetics.

Yarn/Wire's primary mission is thus to present contemporary music performances which reflect a historical perspective while seeking to expand the current musical canon. Newly commissioned works form the centerpiece of this vision, and Yarn/Wire aims to forge connections with the younger generation of composers from around the world.

Sun 12/6 The Naked Stage Play Reading of "Proof" (East Hampton campus) 3:00 pm $15/$10 senior citizens/$5 students

'Proof' the 2001 Pulitzer Prize-winning play by David Auburn about a brilliant but unstable mathematical genius, his daughters and his student, is being presented as a play reading by The Naked Stage and the League of Women Voters of the Hamptons on Sunday, December 6, at 3 p.m. at the Ross School in East Hampton. The question of who wrote a new prime number theorem is the driving force of the play. Produced on Broadway in 2001, the play won the Tony Award, the New York Drama Critics Circle Award and the Drama Desk Award for Best Play that year. The 2005 film of the same name starred Anthony Hopkins, Gwyneth Paltrow, Jake Gyllenhaal and Hope Davis. The drama will unfold on the lecture hall stage in the Ross School's Senior Building, located on the left at 9 Goodfriend Drive, off Route 114. General admission, which includes refreshments, is $15, $10 for senior citizens, and $5 for students. A raffle will also be held. Proceeds from the event benefit both The Naked Stage and the League of Women Voters of the Hamptons. For further information, call Roth of the LWV at 283-0759 or contact thenakedstage@optonline.net.

At 5:30 p.m. Book Reading featuring Rabbi Zimmerman & Cantor Stein. Chanukah is an eight-day Jewish holiday commemorating the re-dedication of the Temple in 164 B.C. The reason for the celebration is twofold. One is the military victory of the small, ill-equipped Jewish army over the ruling Greek Syrians who had banned the Jewish religion and desecrated the Temple in 176 B.C. They then had to re-consecrate their Temple. Secondly, there wasn't enough oil to keep the candles lit throughout the night as was required, but by a miracle the oil that should have lasted one day lasted eight days, which was enough time to acquire a new supply, 44 Woods Lane, East Hampton; www.jcoh.org, 631-324-9858.

Nature walks & workshop. For more information, reservations, and directions to meeting places, please call: Natureline 537-9735. Walks are free to SOFO members. Non-members are charged $7 per per adult, $5 per child. Fees include admission to the museum on the day of the program.

Fri 12/4 Owls By the Light of the Moon 7:00 pm Bridgehampton

Walk Leader: Joe Giunta. Listen for the whinnying sound of the Eastern Screech Owl or maybe even the seven-noted hoot of the Great Horned Owl on this nighttime owl prowling that marks the beginning of our owls' courtship season. Joe, an expert birder and a delightful teacher, will present a brief slide show and then take you into the field to call owls in for actual sightings. Bring binoculars and a flashlight. This walk is for adults. However, children over the age of 10 may attend.

Sat 12/5 Winter Water Birds 7:45 am Montauk

Walk Leader: Hugh McGuinness. Experienced birder and science educator Hugh McGuinness will lead his annual winter walk at Montauk Point. The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service states that "the nearshore open waters surrounding Montauk Point provide regionally significant and critical winter waterfowl habitat and concentration areas. . . . Found here in significant numbers, particularly in winter, are several species of special emphasis in the region, such as Common Loon, Common Eider, White-Winged Scoter, Surf Scoter, Black Scoter, Bufflehead, Common Goldeneye, Great Cormorant, and Red-breasted Merganser. Harlequin Duck and King Eider occur here regularly during the winter, and this is the southernmost regular wintering population of Harlequin Ducks on the East Coast. On the Block Island Sound side of the peninsula, in somewhat more protected areas, American Black Duck, and Oldsquaw occur in large wintering concentrations. The sea duck concentrations around Montauk Point are the largest nearshore winter concentrations in New York. . ."

Sat 12/12 Newts, Salamanders, and Frogs, Oh Yeah!! 10:00 am Bridgehampton

Registration is essential and is limited for this program; please reserve immediately! Program Leader: Heather Abrams, SoFo Nature Educator. When is a salamander a salamander and when is it a newt? What's the difference between a frog and a toad, who hops and who leaps, and does a frog really "say" ribbit? Children will find out the answers to these and many more often puzzling questions about our local amphibians at this live animal workshop with Heather. After the discussion children will make a paper plate frog of their own!

Sat 12/19 Decorate a Holiday Tree for the Birds 10:00 am Bridgehampton

Workshop Leaders: South Fork Natural History Museum Staff. Feeding wild birds in winter is especially important in our area where development has removed a good deal of natural winter food resources for our local birds. Join the SoFo staff to make bird friendly decorations for a holiday tree using seeds, suet, and dried fruits. You'll also be able to make some of these holiday treats to take home to use as decorations on your own holiday tree for the birds. There is a $2 charge for each child participant. Bring a shoebox to take home your decorations.

Sun 12/27 Observing Seals 9:00 am Montauk

Walk Leader: Lindsey Rohrbach. The end of December is a prime time to observe seals that arrive in our waters to become winter residents. Join Lindsey, SoFo Nature Educator, on this walk through the deciduous forests of the scenic Seal Haul Out Trail in Montauk and down to the rocky shore, where at low tide you can expect to see harbor seals and an occasional gray seal sunning themselves on the exposed rocks. The walk to see the seals is about one-half mile, so keep that in mind when bringing small children.

Events are free to members of The Nature Conservancy, $4 for non-members, unless otherwise noted.

MONTAUK POINT STATE PARK 631-668-5000

Seals on Long Island : During the cooler months, some special visitors from the north come to Long Island starting in mid-November. They return to Northern New England and Canada in May. Seals belonging to the Pinniped family (meaning "feather footed" or "winged"), are true seals which lack external earflaps, have torpedo shaped bodies for fast swimming. They have long, sharp claws to help them dig into the ice while climbing out of the water or onto the beach. Unlike sea lions, their front flippers are short and they are referred to as "earless" seals. Their hind flippers are webbed and pointed backwards to help them swim. They have been recorded swimming over 12 miles per hour and have been spotted swimming 70 miles off of the coast of Long Island. Seals haul out of the water to rest, sleep, and warm up in the sun's heat. While on land sunning themselves, they are often seen in a "banana" shaped position. The seals we see on Long Island are most often Harbor seals, but there are a few other types, such as harp seals, grey seals, hooded seals, and ringed seals. Numbers have been increasing in past years into the thousands around Long Island due to the changing location of their food sources and the changing temperatures of their watery habitat. Most of the seals that visit Long Island are younger seals. These marine mammals eat a variety of crustaceans, fish and shellfish like mussels, clams, oysters and squid.

THE CHILDREN'S MUSEUM OF THE EAST END (CMEE) 376 Bridgehampton/Sag Harbor Turnpike, Bridgehampton 537-8250

It started with a dream: To create a magical and inviting place for young people that would stir their curiosity and imagination. In this quickly moving world of technology, children's museums give families an opportunity to slow down and actively share in their children's growth. These wonderful places of discovery are designed to provide interactive experiences that foster curiosity in children and create a lifelong love of self-directed learning. Interactive exhibits will be both permanent and rotating. The permanent exhibit will focus on what makes the East End a special place, with an emphasis on the people and living creatures that inhabit it. Themes include agriculture, fishing, world celebrations, and community. In addition to the indoor activities, visitors will be encouraged to explore outdoor exhibits, mazes and gardens. Plans include space for year-round workshops, performances, and special events, as well as a permanent art workshop for children to explore their own creativity. Reservations required unless otherwise specified. CMEE Museum Hours: Mon, Wed, Thurs & Sat: 9 am-6 pm; Friday is late night at CMEE: 9 am-7:30 pm; Sun: 10 am-6 pm; Closed on Tuesdays Admission: Under 1 year old: FREE; 12 and under: $5.00; Teens and Grownups: $7.00; Senior Grownups: $5.0

Permanent Exhibit:

Explore along a raised wooden boardwalk and crawl through a hollow log, out of a mouse hole and into our fantasy tree house bedroom. Visit our Crawler Garden with it's cuddly bugs and select fruits and vegetables at the East End Farm Stand. Walk down CMEE's Main Street, sail the seas on our seafaring ship, meet up with some sand puppets, make noise in the Musical Forest, create a masterpiece in our free Drop-In Art Studio, and interact with the traveling exhibits in the Legacy Family Tree Gallery. Connect the past to present to future, from local community to global society. There's a turn-of-the-century General Store with a replica soda fountain and costumes to try on. Sit down for a read along under an upside-down library book. Watch us transform potatoes into potato chips, and discover how a windmill works.

Sat 12/19 Get Creative! 10:00 am – 11:00 am $12/ Members Free

Join us for a special "Get Creative" Program on Saturday, December 19 from 10 - 11 am to celebrate the season and have fun with your children decorating gingerbread houses and cookies. Each child can decorate their own pre-assembled gingerbread house by frosting roofs, adding pretzel fences, gumdrop walkways or peppermint windows. Or, your child can choose to decorate a traditional gingerbread cookie. CMEE is providing complimentary cider and holiday music to help make a festive morning. CMEE staff will assist with decorating so parents of children 4 years and older may choose to enjoy coffee in the lobby (or shop in the MoonSoup toy store at CMEE). Space is limited so advance sign up is strongly encouraged.

Sat 12/19 Farmer's Market 10:00 am – 1:00 pm

On Saturday, December 19, don't be surprised if our lobby resembles a Farmers Market - it will be! Relive the summer joys of shopping for fresh, seasonal - and special items at CMEE at an Indoor Farmers Market - just in time for gift giving or your own holiday party menu! Among the list of participating vendors are: The Seafood Shop, Fat Ass Fudge, Boathouse Road, and Long Island Livestock.

Thurs 12/31 Second Annual New Year's Eve "Ball Drop" at Noon 11:00 am Free with museum admission

Looking for a fun way to celebrate the New Year with your family? Come to CMEE on Thursday, December 31 for our Second Annual New Year's Eve "Ball Drop" at Noon. Revelers are invited to come to the Museum at 11 am, create and decorate their own noise makers and count down to "Mid-Day" as a ball is dropped from the CMEE Ship (aka "CMEE Time Square") complete with the swirling confetti and sparkling cider. CMEE's Ball Drop gives children, who will be fast asleep at midnight, the opportunity to ring in the New Year!

Have you ever heard of mead? Have you ever tried mead? Maybe you tried mead while visiting Europe or at a medieval festival? Have you been told that mead was like beer, a beer with honey or even a wine with honey? Mead has some similarities to these beverages, but it is so much more it deserves its own category. Mead is an alcoholic beverage made from the fermentation of honey as its primary sugar source and is often referred to as honey wine. Being made from honey, one would naturally expect it to be very sweet and although it usually is, it can actually range from dry to very sweet. Mead is usually still, though it can be made sparkling and can range from a mild low alcoholic content up to very high. Mead is arguably the oldest alcoholic beverage on the planet with some evidence dating it back approximately 10,000 years. Due to many different cultural and financial reasons, mead has fallen out of favor over the many years and now we call it the 'oldest alcoholic beverage no one has ever heard of.' A far cry from its hey day when it was referred to as the 'Nectar of the Gods.' Mead can be produced in many variations including a plain honey wine (traditional - honey only), flavored with fruit (melomel), spices (metheglin), vegetables, or any combination of ingredients limited only by the imagination of the wine maker and the resources he has at hand.
